

The Village Voice

June 2018

The song lyric, “June is busting out all over!” is exactly what is happening around Westminster Village.

The flowers are in full bloom, the grass is a lovely green “carpet” and the trees have now all leafed out. On most any day that does not include rain, you will find Westminster residents outside enjoying the beautiful landscape that surround Westminster and possibly doing a little bird watching. What a wonderful time of year!

Starry Night Golden Gala

Westminster Village cordially invites all senior adults to attend the Starry Night Golden Gala. Come and dance “under the stars” to a variety of wonderful music by DJ Matt Howell. The Gala will be held in the Legacy Commons Event Hall on Friday, June 1st, 7:00 – 9:00 pm. There will be prizes and delicious treats. Formal attire is optional. The public is invited to attend.

Expanding Your Horizons in June

Our continuing series Expanding Your Horizons in June is presented by the

E.B and Bertha C. Ball Center featuring a Pictorial History of Ball State, in print. Bruce Geelhoed, Michael Szajewski, and Brandon Pieczko, of Ball State University, have collaborated to write a visual history of Ball State on the occasion of the University’s centennial celebration. The book, One Hundred Years in Pictures: Researching and Writing Ball State’s Centennial History Book, contains nearly 240 historic photographs that document the institution’s diverse and remarkable history, tracing its development from a humble Midwestern teachers college to a diverse and innovative 21st century research university. On Wednesday, June 6th, at 2:00 pm, in the Legacy Commons, co-author, Michael Szajewski, Assistant Dean for Digital Scholarship and Special Collections at Ball State, will describe the process of researching, writing, and creating the book.
