Westminster Village Resident Spotlight

“When the time came that I could no longer live at home, everyone I talked to recommended Westminster Village, and talked very positively about it. My family agreed that Westminster was the place for me. All the employees are so kind, friendly and helpful. They know us all by name and really care about us. My lovely apartment feels just like home, light green painted walls, and overlooking the gazebo & pond. I now play Bridge again twice a week since we have had the vaccines. I love going outside especially during the summertime Kentucky Fried Chicken picnic that we have out on the deck and gazebo.” – Mary Collins grew up in Cincinnati, Ohio. One of Mary’s jobs was as a secretary for G.E. There she met Jim Collins, who was from Boston, on a three year Manager Training Program. They married the next year. After leaving G.E, Jim became V.P. of Manufacturing at Warner Gear, in Muncie. Jim and Mary were blessed with five children, each graduating from the University of Dayton, two years apart. Their daughter, Mary Ann Jablonski (John) lives in Boston; son Jim (Marilyn) lives in Chicago with children, Caitlan, Shawn, Conner; son Patrick (Amy) lives in New Jersey with grandchildren, Kathryn and Courtney; son Tim (Mandy) lives in New Jersey with grandchildren Maddie, Kelly, and Brennan. In 1990, their son Mike passed away in an automobile accident in Littleton, Colorado. Mary is an active member of St. Mary’s Church.

Senior Moments

Been There...Done That!

For a scene she was shooting for 1959’s Some Like It Hot, Marilyn Monroe was supposed to enter a room, walk to a dresser, rummage through the drawers, find a bottle of bourbon, and ask for a drink. She blew the line

52 times in a row – although far from her record of 82 takes, set earlier by the famously forgetful movie star. “On the fifty-third take”, recalled director Billy Wilder, “I told her we had put the line on pieces of paper, and they were in every drawer she would open.” “However”, added Wilder, “she went to the wrong piece of furniture!”

Exciting News From Westminster Village!

Since COVID, residents have had to eat their meals in their apartments. On June 15th, our residents are back in the dining rooms, eating all three meals, without having to social distance. They are so excited to be able to sit at the same table with their friends again!

Our Next-to-New Shoppe has been open for several weeks and Bingo began in June. The card games and dominoes have begun as well. Our move-in list is continuing to grow and we are excited to introduce everyone to our new residents. Things are beginning to get back to normal.

Exciting Summer Special At Westminster Village

Buyers are looking for homes; however, according to many area realtors, there is not enough inventory on the market to meet the demand. Living at Westminster Village you no longer need to worry about:

- Maintenance and upkeep on your home

- Home insurance and real estate taxes
- Yard care, such as mowing, trimming, weeding and fertilizing
- Fall yard clean-up and winter snow removal
- Utility and security costs
- Housekeeping and grocery shopping.
